Theme: “I See You!”

What Does it Mean to Be Seen?”

How good are you at seeing the children you care for?

We mean really seeing them for what they are-perceiving them, making sense of them, and responding to them in timely and effective ways.

This is how a child comes to experience the emotional sensation not only of belonging and feeling felt, but also of being known. When we show up for the children we care for and give them the opportunity to be seen, they can learn how to see themselves with clarity and honesty.
